Creature Comforts

They'd found it in the blindness of drugs, the song in the blood that blanked out everything else. It had been excavated from the bottom of a bottle; it was particularly effective when mined in the sweat and the grunt of eroticism, liquid joy and the peace to be found under damp sheets.

An endless parade of faces and thighs and cunts and asses-

But mostly it was to be found in each other, and in the blurring effects of time on the memory.

Michael curled into Markus' chest, and felt breath stir his hair. Here was comfort, at last.
